A document written by a qualified health practitioner that provides details of a person's health condition, treatment and any reasonable adjustments required to accommodate or exclude participation in an activity or program.

Instructor of Cadets (IOC). A person who has volunteered and been accepted as a member of the ANC, AAC or AAFC.

Mandatory reporting. A term used to describe the legislative requirement for selected groups of people to report suspected cases of child abuse and neglect to government authorities. In Defence all personnel (ADF and APS), contractors, volunteers, visitors and ADF Cadets members are mandated to report suspected cases of child abuse and neglect to government authorities.

- XXV -

Military-Like Activity (MLA). An activity (excluding a ceremonial activity involving the use of weapons or firearms) that is performed by the ADF or run primarily for the benefit of ADF Cadets. It must not involve the real or simulated use of force to an enemy or opposition in order to achieve domination over them. MLAs are categorised as:

- Passive no physical involvement other than observing others undertaking MLA
- Active physically performing MLA tasks.

Minor. A person who is under 18 years of age. In the Defence Youth context, the terms minor, child, young person, youth, and adolescent are equivalent and interchangeable.

Misconduct. Any action or behaviour which is determined to be a breach of a code of conduct. Misconduct may relate to the use of resources; use of information (whether inappropriate access, disclosure or failure to disclose); failure to adhere to a Defence policy; or interaction with other people (including colleagues, stakeholders and members of the public). Misconduct can occur deliberately or inadvertently and can vary in nature and seriousness as well as in the impact it has on other employees and the reputation of Defence.

Natural Justice. The rules and procedures to be followed by a person or body with the power to settle disputes. Some rules of natural justice are to act fairly, without bias, and the right of all parties to be heard.

Neglect. A failure to provide youth with an adequate standard of nutrition, medical care, clothing, shelter, hygiene or supervision. Neglect may place the youth's immediate safety and development at serious risk, or may not immediately compromise the safety of the youth, but is likely to result in longer term cumulative harm.

Neglect can be:

- Isolated, where the neglect is one-off, trivial in nature, temporary and/or accidental
- Persistent, where the neglect is more than trivial in nature, continual and/or prolonged
- Severe, where the neglect is recurring and/or enduring to the extent that the youth's health, safety and/or development is, or is likely to be, significantly affected.

Non-Defence personnel: all persons, paid or unpaid, who are not Defence personnel. This includes:

- locally engaged employees, contractors, consultants and outsourced service providers operating in Defence where compliance is NOT specified in the terms of contract
- ADF Cadets adult volunteers.

- xxvi -

Non-Defence Training Areas (NDTA). All land, sea and air, infrastructure and/or facilities not owned by Defence but used by Defence and the ADF Cadets for the purpose of delivering routine activities.

Officer of Cadets (OOC). A person who has volunteered and been accepted as a member of the ANC, AAC or the AAFC.

One Cadet. An approach (introduced to address issues identified by the 2015 Royal Commission into Institutional Responses to Child Sexual Abuse) to bring coherence and clearly delineate accountabilities across the ADF Cadets environment. Wherever appropriate, the ADF Cadets adopt common procedures, assurance, and education and training programs within the policy parameters established by the Chief of Joint Capabilities (CJC).

Other Discrimination, which excludes Sex/Gender Discrimination. When a person or group of people are treated less favourably than others because of their:

- identity, race, culture or ethnic origin
- religion
- physical characteristics
- marital, parenting or economic status
- age
- ability or disability.

Discrimination interferes with the legal right of all people to be treated fairly and have the same opportunities as everyone else.

Discrimination may be Isolated (one-off) or Persistent in nature.

Outsourced Service Provider. A person or organisation engaged by Defence under a service contract to deliver a specified service or supply, usually against agreed milestones and deliverable requirements.

Parent Service. With respect to:

Prohibited Substance Offence. Possessing, dealing, or administering to others a prohibited substance, including instances of food or drink spiking, trafficking or selling any prohibited substance, or knowingly associating with individuals who use or are otherwise involved with prohibited substances.

Prohibited Substance Use. When a person administers to himself or herself, or causes or permits to be administered, a prohibited substance.

Protection Order. For the purpose of YOUTHPOLMAN, a protection order is an order made by a Federal, State or Territory court, or a member of a State or Territory Police Service, for the protection of one person against another person. Protection Orders may be called, but not limited to, domestic violence orders, apprehended violence orders, restraining orders and prohibition orders. A Protection Order includes an interim or provisional order.

Qualification Shoot. A Defence-approved live firing or simulation range practice, other than a familiarisation practice.

Reasonable Suspicion/belief. A state of mind that is less than a belief but more than a mere possibility, based on reasonable grounds, that a youth's physical safety, health, psychological or emotional wellbeing has been, is being or may be jeopardised. Proof that abuse has occurred is not required before reporting a reasonable suspicion of abuse.

Records Management Advisors. Provide specialist advice, leadership and coordination in relation to records management.

Records Management Specialists. Manage and maintain the day-to-day records management activities including system administration and the provision of records management training.

- xxviii -

Respondent. The individual person or persons against whom a complaint is made.

Responsible Third Party. In relation to a youth, means a person or body having parental responsibility or guardianship of a youth under the age of 18. Includes legal guardians and specified next of kin.

SAFEBASE. Defence's security alert system, used to communicate the threat of violent acts on Defence premises. It is a three tiered system that helps Base leaders select appropriate security measures to prepare, deter and respond to an attack or act of violence, and to communicate the current threat clearly to all on a Defence establishment.

Sensitive Information. Has the same meaning as in section 6 of the Privacy Act 1988.

Senior Australian Defence Force Officer. The senior military officer who has oversight and authority on all military operations and matters on a Defence Establishment or Base. The SADFO is also empowered to issue commands and general orders to Defence members in resident units, transiting or visiting the base for the purposes of discipline, security, emergency or safety matters in respect of the establishment or base.

Sex/Gender Discrimination. When a person is treated less favourably than another person in the same or similar circumstances because of that person's sex/gender, characteristics of that person's sex/gender, or assumed characteristics of that person's sex/gender.

Sexual Exploitation. The actual or attempted abuse of a position of vulnerability, differential power, or trust for sexual purposes including, but not limited to, profiting monetarily, socially, or politically from sexual exploitation of another.

Child Exploitation Material. Anything that represents

- the sexual parts of a child
- a child engaged in an activity of a sexual nature
- someone else engaged in an activity of a sexual nature in the presence of a child.

Sexual Harassment. Unwanted or unwelcomed sexual behaviour, which does not constitute sexual abuse that a reasonable person, having regard to all the circumstances, would consider offensive, insulting, humiliating or intimidating. Sexual Harassment includes:

- leering/staring
- insults of a sexual nature
- sexually offensive comments, innuendo, jokes or gestures

- xxix -

sexual comments or questions about a person's sexual appeal or activities.

Sexual Harassment can be Isolated (one-off) or Persistent in nature.

Sexual Misconduct. Term used to cover the full spectrum of inappropriate behaviours of a sexual nature, from unacceptable behaviours that are visible and non-criminal, through to criminal behaviours. These behaviours can be committed by force or intimidation, or be unwelcome. Sexual misconduct includes, but is not limited to, sexual discrimination, sexual harassment, sexual offences, and the recording, photographing or transmitting of incidents of a sexual nature without the knowledge and consent of all parties. See http://drnet/People/SeMPRO/Pages/Understanding-Sexual-Misconduct.aspx for further information.

Special Care Provisions. Legislation which imposes additional restrictions on adults in certain contexts. These laws prohibit any person in a supervisory role from engaging sexually with a person who is under 18, whether or not they are above the age of consent. These laws exist only in some states. See https://aifs.gov.au/cfca/publications/age-consent-laws for further information on Special Care provisions in each state.
