Defence Community Organisation

Program Summary

The Defence Community Organisation (DCO) offers a broad range of programs and services to help Defence families manage the military way of life.

Services provided by DCO include support from a social worker, assistance for partners' education and employment, help with childcare, assistance for dependants with special needs, support for Defence community groups, help for families during crisis and emergency, education support for children, and assistance for members leaving the ADF.

You can also 'Like' the DCO Facebook page to receive updates and news in your newsfeed.
